Look out for the Red Mark.

Subscribers who see a red mark on the margin of their paper near their names may know that their time has expired. We hope all such will renew at once.

The County Council, Patrons of Husbandry, of Ohio county, will meet at the courthouse in Hartford, on Friday, the 31st day of March, 1876.

W. T. RICKETTS, Sec. Protem.
S. WOODWARD, Pres.

A crusty old bachelor explains that the reason a woman puts a finger in her mouth when she thinks, is because she cannot think and talk too.

We would like for all to read the beautiful little poem on our first page, dedicated to Sallie by "Rosine." Every line is a warm rush of poetic love, seemingly floating into music, carrying the reader through the realities of life to that blissful hereafter where all troubles end. Every line is a truth beautifully expressed, and the bright sun of happiness turns the tears of sorrow to rainbows of joy.

Last Wednesday morning about daylight the alarm of fire was given, which proved to be the meat-house of Mr.
Geo. W. Bunker. Mr. Bunker had been smoking his meat the day previous, and when night came on he neglected putting out the fire. A large goods box, containing meat which had been cured and stored away, caught fire and roasted the meat that was in it. One side of the meat-house was burned completely out, and the flames were in a fair way to soon devour his house, which they would have done had it not been for Dora Sullenger, a black man, who came by and gave the alarm and lent a helping hand. This should be a warning to all who have meat to smoke, and they should see before retiring for the night that all is safe in this respect.

For the Mardi Gras.

The following persons took the train at Beaver Dam, Monday morning, for Louisville, to attend Mardi Gras:

Mrs. H. D. McHenry, Miss Mattie Berry, S. Woodward, S. K. Cox, Dr.
S. L. Berry, George A. Platt, John R. Collins, Henry Hart, Herbert Kinsolvin, Z. Wayne Griffin, John P.
Barrett, of Hartford; R. J. Daniel, Isaac Mendel, of Cromwell; Thos.
Stevens, A. H. Kahn, Mike Stanley, Beaver Dam.

Marriage Licenses.

The following is a list of the marriage licenses issued since our last report:

Aaron T. Tichenor and Miss Sallie W. Ashby.

Robert N. Pate and Miss Mary E.
Rowe.

Hardin H. Morris and Miss Sallie
A. Milligan.

J. W. Morris and Miss Precilla Vance.

Samuel Ralph and Miss Martha S.
Wade.

Francis M. Martin and Miss Lucella Smith.

Real Estate Transfers.

[Judged for record since our last issue.]
John W. Cooper to Dr. W. J. Berry, 91 acres on Muddy creek, deed of division.

Thos. W. Chamberlain to Jesse Mc.
Taylor, 1/2 of 17 9-10 acres on Panther, 8100.

Miss R. A. Chamberlain to Jesse Mc. Taylor, 1/2 of 17 9-10 acres on Panther, 8100.

Wm. M. Williams to O. L. Bowen, 4 78-100 acres on No creek, 8445.

Kuklux Outrage.

A lot of men, under disguise, week before last, burned the house of David Godsey (of color), in the edge of Grayson county. They made the negro carry out all his plunder and then stand and see his house burn.
They then went to B. A. Deweese's white man, and fired his house, and made the family stand by and see it burn. One of Deweese's sons wounded one of the gang badly. Deweese says he knows them, and it is rumored that all of them will be arrested. The cause given for the outrage is that Deweese keeps a bawdy house, and the negro and a daughter of Deweese's have been cohabiting together. It is reported that she has given birth to a child which is said to be the negro's.

Robbery.

On Friday, last week, Mr Wesley Crow, living in the North-western part of the county, was robbed. He had $150 and several valuable papers in a trunk.
He was out burning plant-beds, and his wife was from home on a visit; the thief went in and got the trunk carried it off broke it open and took the money and left the trunk on the roadside. Mr. Crow has recovered his papers. He had paid out $500, a few days before.

DIED.

Feb. 12th, Mabel Hoke, aged Six Years.

Thou art gone—translated, darling, To realms of cloudless bliss,
And we are left to feel the anguish, While the cheering rod we kiss The Father called thee, precious one, And may His righteous will be done.

Thou art gone, sweet little blossom, That rearest thy tender form, Smiling in fond and artless lore, A bud of beauty in our storm Of life—a lily bud ere sun or dew Had opened thy leaves of spotless hue.

Thou art gone, in all thy brightness, And rougher seems earth's rugged shore,
And darkling fall the shadows, Where sunshine laughed before.
Oh, God! forgive the wistful tear, That would recall our treasure here.

Thou art gone—the sweet voice hush'd, That, late in tides of gladness, Poured bird-like melody on our ears, Driving away all gloom and sadness.
Thou art singing now with the angel throng,
Sending sweeter notes to cherubim's song

Thou art gone, but a deathless love Still lives in our hearts for thee, A memory sweet of thy radiant face,
And thy spirit's tireless glee.
Thy voice a music, thy gentle power, Linger still in our souls like dew on the flower.

A Man Deserts His Wife and Flees
With a Young Lady.

Mr. Elazar Hedden, of Fordville, took some cattle to Louisville, a short time ago and sold them and returned to Owensboro and sent out a man in a buggy for Miss Hale, daughter of Mr.
Armstrong Hale, living in the vicinity of Fordville. Miss Hale was visiting her uncle's near Owensboro. The young lady went to that city and in company with Hedden, left the country. We see in the list of arrivals at Alexander's hotel in Louisville, Ky., on 23rd ultimo, E. Hedden and wife, Fordville, Ky. Hedden leaves a wife behind. We give the above as we heard it not vouching for the truth of it though our information comes from a reliable source.

Elopement.

Mr. W. Perry Bennett and Miss Shawn, a daughter of Isaac Shown, living in the neighborhood of Boda, having formed an attachment for each other and the old man being unwilling, they lit out on last Wednesday morning, for Tennessee. General Hoover, volunteered to guard them to the Gretna Green and return, and they will, no doubt, make a safe trip, as the General has piloted several companies of the same kind before and they always got through safe.

MARRIED.

Feb. 25th, 1876, at the Southern Hotel in Clarksville Tenn., by the Rev. R. K. Brown, Mr. W. P. Bennett to Miss Sarah Shown—all of Ohio county, Ky.

Babecek Acquitted.

[From Courier-Journal.]
Babecek is acquitted. The White House influence has triumphed. The guileless young man will be borne with jubilation to the President, and the fatted calf will be killed. "Let no guilty man escape" henceforth will be as grim a joke as was ever perpetrated.
Joyce and McDonald languished beneath that utterance, but when the sweep of the scythe approached that little interroom in the White House, where the perfumed darling of the Grant Group performed his clerical work, the hand was stayed. There was a mental reservation in the Presidents words. They might cut too closely. Those who have followed the course of the Babecek trial began to yield their belief that the defendant would be found guilty, when his counsel succeeded in inducing Judge Dillon to exclude several of the most important telegrams, especially those which passed between Luckey and Babecek last November, when the latter was in terror lest he should be summoned to St.
Louis. The frantic efforts of Babecek's lawyer to get these dispatches thrown out were suspicious from the start, in the face of the defendant's own reiterated declaration that "Every telegram which I sent will appear perfectly innocent the moment I can be heard."— He obtained the hearing and then sought to hide the telegrams from the scrutiny of the jury. But he is acquitted. He has succeeded. He will return to be honored by the President and the circle which he has adorned at Washington, but followed by the irrefragable suspicion and contempt of those who took the president at his word, when he uttered the words, "Let no guilty man escape."

THE LAST NUMBER OF THE GRAYSON

Journal came to us in the form of a folio —heretofore a quarto. The Journal is published in our neighboring county, which makes it a welcome visitor to this office.

We were made the happy recipients last night of a splendid lunch from our kind hostess, Mrs. Vaughn.

Mr. D. E. Thomas, of this city, is visiting relatives in Owensboro,

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.
REPUBLICANS OF OHIO COUNTY.

You are respectfully called upon and urged to meet in Convention at the Court House in Hartford on the first Monday in April next, to select Delegates to the State Convention to be held in Louisville, on the 18th day of May, and for a thorough organization of the party, that they may enter the approaching Presidential campaign fully prepared to meet any emergency, and thereby help to secure another Republican victory. To the silent thunders of the ballot-box in November next the friends of civil liberty look for another grand manifestation of the capability for self government, by the continuation of the Republican party in the control of American destiny.
Republicans, friends of liberty, rally, that we may again shout victory.

CONSUMPTION CURED.

An old physician, retired from active practice, having placed in his hands by an East India Missionary the formula of a simple Vegetable Remedy, for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma, and all throat and Lung Affections, also a Positive and Radical cure for Nervous Debility and all Nervous Complaints, after having thoroughly tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, feels it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motives, and a conscientious desire to relieve human suffering, he will send (free of charge) to all who desire it, this recipe, with full directions for preparing and successfully using. Sent by return mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper.

IT PAYS IT PAYS!
WHAT PAYS?

IT PAYS every Manufacturer, Merchant, Mechanic, Inventor, Farmer, or Professional man, to keep informed on all the improvements and discoveries of the present age.

IT PAYS the head of every family to introduce into his household a newspaper that is instructive, one that fosters a taste for investigation, and promotes thought and encourages discussion among the members.

THE SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN, which has been published weekly for the last thirty years, does this, to an extent beyond that of any other publication, in fact it is the only weekly paper published in the United States, devoted to Manufactures, Mechanics, Inventions and new discoveries in the Arts and Sciences.

Every number is profusely illustrated and its contents embrace the latest and most interesting information pertaining to the Industrial, Mechanical, and Scientific Progress of the World; Descriptions, with Beautiful Engravings, of new Inventions, of new Implements, new Processes, and Improved Industries of all kinds; Useful Notes, Recipes, Suggestions and Advice, by Practical Writers, for Workmen and Employers, in all the various arts, forming a complete repository of New Inventions and Discoveries; containing a weekly record not only of the progress of the Industrial Arts in our own country, but also of all new discoveries and inventions in every branch of Engineering, Mechanics, and Science abroad.

THE SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN has been the foremost of all industrial publications for the past thirty years. It is the oldest, largest, cheapest, and the best weekly illustrated paper devoted to Engineering, Mechanics, Chemistry, New Inventions, Science and Industrial Progress, published in the World.

The practical receipts are worth ten times the subscription price. And for the shop and house will save many times the cost of subscription.

Merchants, Farmers, Mechanics, Engineers, Inventors, Manufacturers, Chemists, Lovers of Science, and people of all Professions, will find the SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN useful to them. It should have a place in every Family, Library, Study, Office, and Counting Room; in every Reading Room, College and School.
A new volume commences January 1st, 1876.

A year's numbers contains 832 pages and SEVERAL HUNDRED ENGRAVINGS.
Thousands of volumes are preserved for binding and reference. Terms, $3.20 a year by mail, including postage. Discount to Clubs. Special circulars giving Club rates sent free. Single copies mailed on receipt of 10 cents. May be had of all News Dealers.

PATENTS.

In connection with the SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN, Messrs. MUNN & CO. are Solicitors of American and Foreign Patents, and have the largest establishment in the world. More than fifty thousand applications have been made for patents through their agency.

Patents are obtained on the best terms.
Models of New Inventions and Sketches examined and advice free. A special notice is made in the SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN of all Inventions Patented through this Agency, with the name and residence of the Patentee. Patents are often sold in part or whole, to persons attracted to the invention by such notice. Send for Pamphlet, containing full directions for obtaining patents. A bound volume containing the Patent Laws, Census of the U. S., and 142 Engravings of mechanical movement. Price 25 cents. for the light running Remington. We have recently come to Hartford, and expect to remain here, until every family in Ohio and adjoining counties is supplied with a Sewing Machine; but do not wait for us to canvass and hunt you up, but send in your orders for machines, and they will be promptly attended to. No pains will be spared in instructing parties who buy machines. Machines can be bought on monthly or quarterly instalments. Patrons will please write under Seal of your Grange for circular and special terms, as agreed upon by the Executive Committee of Kentucky and Tennessee State Granges. Liberal discounts to Farmers; clubs, and all cash purchasers. Call
